30-15 Days Before Last Day at Work
Accountability	Who to contact	Item	Details
Project	Project Manager	Transition Plan and Roll Off Checklist	✓ Coordinate with your Project Manager and/ or People Lead to complete your transition plan and roll-off checklist. ✓ Review your Workday Inbox for any pending actions. If you have a security role in Workday, discuss with your manager whether the security role should be reassigned. ✓ If you are a People lead role, re-assign your people to the new people lead in Workday
		Recognition Points	Once you separate from Accenture, you'll lose access to the Recognize site 10 calendar days before your last day of employment. Redeem all points at least 10 calendar days before your last day of employment. Points not redeemed by this time will expire. To maximize your recognition points, follow these steps: 1. Redeem Points Immediately: Spend your points on merchandise, gift cards, or charitable donations in the Philippines. Points expire after separation and cannot be recovered. Note that redeemed points are added to your pay as income and are subject to local tax laws. For tax-related queries on redeemed points, you may reach out to Amethyst or email ExitManagementQuery. 2. Transfer Points-to-Give: If you have points in your wallet or custom program, work with your People Lead to transfer them with a proper handover, ensuring your appreciation continues to benefit others. Remember, your points will expire and be forfeited 10 calendar days before separation. Update any custom program management responsibilities as needed using this job aid.
		Performance Feedback/ Competency Assessments	Complete performance feedback in Workday if you have direct reports for people who have solicited your feedback. You can find more guidance in the Workday for Accenture Collections.
		Performance Achievement - StrengthsFinder	If you took Gallup's Clifton StrengthsFinder, the results are yours to keep, and we hope you find them valuable in your new role! Gallup may retain your report for longer, as you also have the option of setting up a profile with Gallup to access your report via your personal email address. Please contact Gallup Client Support at strengthscenter@gallup.com for more details on how to access your Strengths report on Gallup's Strengths Center site after your last day of employment. You have the right to request to permanently remove your results from Gallup's database. If you would like your results removed, send an email to Privacy_Administrator@Gallup.com
Training	Workday Learning Home - Workday	Workday-Transcript	Print transcript of learning BEFORE your last day as you will not be able to access the site after your last day of work. You may download your Training history from Workday. Select the Learning App from the Global Navigation Menu, select My Learning, then click the View Learning Transcript link under View Your Learning History. For more detailed steps, please refer to the Find Learning History job aid.

			Note: Courses taken in myLearning will not appear on your Workday Learning transcripts, but you can request your myLearning transcripts from Learning Support.
